

Purpose Statement

Your personal information collected by The Turning, will be used by associated churches and their members, to get in touch with you to explain the prayer you said and support you on your Christian journey. The Turning will not use your personal information other than for the purpose above. Your personal information will not be passed to any other organisation or individual apart from those mentioned above.